

The windows don't open, most ropes for the window weights are broken, some large glass panes need to be replaced. Most windows need storms. There's a lot of work to be done to make the windows safe and environmentally sound.

