Heath To Host Sixth Annual Arts Exhibition — Opening Reception Sunday, September 4

Heath, MA—Featuring works by more than thirty artists and artisans living in Heath, or with a strong connection to the bucolic hilltown, the Sixth Annual Heath Arts Exhibition will be held from Saturday, September 3 through Saturday, September 10 in the Community Hall in Heath's historic town center.

"We are delighted to be back in full swing with the art show," said Harry Hallman, founder of the Heath Arts Exhibition and chair of the organizing committee. "This is a highly anticipated event for our community and surrounding towns, and we have a wealth of artistic talent to showcase this year."

In keeping with the annual exhibit's mission to inspire creativity and cultivate community connections, an opening reception will be held outside on the village green on Sunday, September 4 from 2 to 4 p.m. All are invited to visit the gallery and meet the artists. Light refreshments will be served, and there will be live music performed by the Uncles of the Pioneers.

The Arts Exhibition will feature works created in a range of mediums, including painting, drawing, illustration, photography, textiles, glassblowing, ceramics, woodworking and more. Since community is at the heart of the event, there are no restrictions on age or the type of work that may be submitted. Participants in this year's show run the gamut from professional artists to hobbyists of all levels. Among some of the more accomplished artists taking part in this year's exhibition are: Scott Prior, painter and printmaker; Robert Dane, glass artist; Barbara Gordon, master weaver; Jean Gran, photographer; and Suzanne Hannay, painter.

Exhibit hours at 1 East Main Street, Heath, MA 01346 are: Saturday, September 3 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.; Sunday (Opening Reception), September 4 from 2 to 4 p.m.; Monday, September 5 from 2 to 4 p.m.; Tuesday, September 6 through Friday, September 9 from 4 to 6 p.m.; Saturday, September 10 from 10 a.m. to noon.
